Rallye successfully places EUR 200 million non-dilutive cash-settled bonds due February 2022 exchangeable into Casino shares

Rallye SA ("Rallye") announces today the successful placement of a EUR 200 million offering of non-dilutive cash-settled bonds due 2022 exchangeable for existing ordinary shares (the "Shares") of Casino, Guichard-Perrachon S.A. ("Casino") (the "Bonds"). Concurrently, Rallye is purchasing cash-settled call options (the "Call Options") to hedge Rallye's economic exposure to the potential exercise of the exchange rights embedded in the Bonds. As the Bonds will only be cash-settled, the Bonds will not result in the delivery of Shares upon exchange.

The Bonds will be issued at par on October 26, 2016, the expected settlement date of the Bonds. The Bonds will bear interest at an annual nominal rate of 5.25% payable semi-annually in arrear and will be reimbursed at par on February 1st, 2022. The Bonds may be subject to early redemption at the option of Rallye under certain conditions.

The Bonds will have a par value of EUR 100,000 per Bond. The initial exchange price (the "Initial Exchange Price") will represent an exchange premium of 30% over the Share Reference Price (as defined below). The share reference price of Casino (the "Share Reference Price"), will be determined as the arithmetic average of the daily volume-weighted average prices of the Shares in euros on the regulated market of Euronext in Paris over the 15 consecutive trading days commencing on (and including) October 20, 2016 (the "Reference Period").

Rallye intends to use the net proceeds of the issuance of the Bonds for Rallye's general corporate purposes and for financing the purchase of the Call Options.

It is anticipated that the hedge counterparties to the Call Options will enter into transactions to hedge their respective positions under the Call Options through the sale, purchase of Shares or any other transactions, on the market and off-market, at any time, and in particular during the Reference Period and at or around the exchange or redemption of the Bonds.

The Share Reference Price and the Initial Exchange Price will be announced through a final press release at the end of the Reference Period, expected to take place on or around November 9, 2016.

Application will be made for the Bonds to be admitted to trading on the Open Market (Freiverkehr) segment of the Frankfurt Stock Exchange and such admission to trading is expected no later than 90 days following the expected settlement date.

This press release does not constitute a solicitation to purchase or an offer of the Bonds or the Shares (as defined below and together, the “Securities”) in the United States of America or to, or for the account or benefit of, U.S. Persons (as defined in Regulation S under the US Securities Act of 1933, as amended). The Securities may not be offered or sold in the United States of America or to, or for the account or benefit of, U.S. Persons unless they are registered or exempt from registration under the US Securities Act of 1933, as amended. Rallye does not intend to register all or any portion of the offering in the United States of America or to conduct a public offering of the Securities in the United States of America

This press release is an advertisement and not a prospectus within the meaning of Directive 2003/71/EC of the European Parliament and the Council of November 4, 2003 as amended (the “Prospectus Directive”).

The Bonds will be offered only by way of a private placement in France to persons referred to in Article L.411-2-II of the French monetary and financial code (Code monétaire et financier) and outside France (excluding the United States of America, Australia, Canada, Japan and South Africa), without an offer to the public in any country (including France). This press release does not constitute a recommendation concerning the issue of the Bonds. The value of the Bonds and the Shares can decrease as well as increase. Potential investors should consult a professional adviser as to the suitability of the Bonds for the person concerned.

European Economic Area

With respect to the Member States of the European Economic Area which have implemented the Prospectus Directive (the “Relevant Member States”), no action has been undertaken or will be undertaken to make an offer to the public of the Bonds requiring a publication of a prospectus in any Relevant Member State. As a result, the Bonds may only be offered in Relevant Member States:

- (a) to any legal entity which is a qualified investor as defined in the Prospectus Directive; or
- (b) in any other circumstances falling within Article 3(2) of the Prospectus Directive.

For the purposes of this paragraph, the expression “offer to the public of Bonds” in any Relevant Member States, means any communication, to individuals or legal entities, in any form and by any means, of sufficient information on the terms and conditions of the offering and on the Bonds to be offered, thereby enabling an investor to decide to purchase or subscribe for the Bonds, as the same may be varied in that Relevant Member State.

These selling restrictions with respect to Relevant Member States apply in addition to any other selling restrictions which may be applicable in the Relevant Member States who have implemented the Prospectus Directive.

France

The Bonds have not been and will not be offered or sold or cause to be offered or sold, directly or indirectly, to the public in France. Any offer or sale of the Bonds and distribution of any offering material relating to the Bonds have been and will be made in France only to (a) persons providing investment services relating to portfolio management for the account of third parties (personnes fournissant le service d’investissement de gestion de portefeuille pour compte de tiers), and/or (b) qualified investors (investisseurs qualifiés) acting for their own account, as defined in, and in accordance with, Articles L.411-2-II, D.411-1 and D.411-4 of the French monetary and financial Code (Code monétaire et financier).
